

We are seeking an Early Childhood Educator Supervisor to join UVic Child Care Services in a continuing full-time position, to provide leadership in a child care centre for three to five year olds.

UVic Child Care Services early childhood educators (ECE) and ECE Supervisors are passionate leaders and advocates for the field, who uphold very high standards and provide strong mentorship to ECEs new to the field. At UVic Child Care Services:

- We provide a free in-house professional development program in which we work alongside educational facilitators who guide inquiry work and research projects, lead seminars and workshops for our ECEs, and provide program support.
- Our ECEs have published journal articles, held exhibits and presented at a number of conferences and workshops.
- We follow the BC Early Learning Framework and practice a Common Worlds Framework approach, considering our ethical relations with others, as we reflect on the history of the land and the legacies of colonialism. We grapple with how to be allies (imperfect) in the important reconciliation work to be done. For more information on our theoretical approaches, please visit www.commonworlds.net and www.earlychildhoodcollaboratory.net

Please contact Kim Ainsworth, Manager, Child Care Services at 250-721-6656 or kainsw@uvic.ca for any questions related to this job opportunity. To apply for this position you must submit your application through the UVic website.
