The Esquimalt Military Family Resource Centre is currently looking for an Inclusion Worker (1-Year Term) to work full-time, Monday to Friday, out of our Colwood location.

As an educator, you love what you do, and you're excited to help children be part of developmentally appropriate activities designed to encourage learning. You're responsible and mature—a natural nurturer with a child-centred approach and experience working with children of all age. Your excellent interpersonal and communication skills mean you're at ease interacting with parents, community members, and fellow staff on a daily basis.

To thrive in this role, you have:

- Current First Aid Certification
- Knowledge and understanding of the issues that affect children of military families
- A valid driver's license (class 4 license a plus!)

Who are we? The Esquimalt Military Family Resource Centre is a non-profit organization with the responsibility of addressing the needs of military families. We provide programs and services that serve, involve and advocate for the military community and their families; which address the unique challenges of the military family lifestyle and will result in an enhanced quality of life. Our commitment is to journey towards a learning organization: an organization that uses tools to think and learn together, while communicating and cooperating.

If you take pride in your work, care about providing for our Military families, and embrace an environment supportive of learning, then the MFRC is the place for you!

A criminal record check will be required as a condition of employment for this position.
