

Dynamic You™: Unleash Your Dynamic Woman
with Diane Rolston

October 1st 2019 – November 19th 2019 (8 consecutive Tuesdays)
Online (Zoom Meeting Platform) – Time: 7-8pm - Cost: $195 (includes book)

As a Leadership Coach for women, Diane Rolston often hears women simply wish for more confidence, that goals felt within reach and that they had a reliable system so that nothing would get in their way. This is why Diane created Dynamic You™: you too can learn how to unleash the potential that exists inside you by implementing the 9 Pillars of being a Dynamic Woman. You and your colleagues will enjoy the easy to follow format with a book and videos, along with group coaching.

Over the 8 weeks, participants gain valuable skills and tools that they can apply in all areas of life, such as: Feel confident to step into higher level roles, tasks and conversations; be decisive and advance in life and business at a faster pace; evaluate relationships to redesign them or design new ones; assess situations and boost opportunities; measure satisfaction and increase success; and have clarity on best practices and have more control of outcomes

This is the second time ECEBC will be offering this program which will provide the tools needed to make shifts in mindset, support growth and ramp up what is possible for better results. As an educator herself, Diane has made a very special offer to ECEBC (regular value is up to $997 per seat depending on the location). Diane gave sold-out sessions at ECEBC’s conferences the past two years.
